

March 13, 2020

Dear Citizens:

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, beginning Monday, March 16, 2020, there will be limited access to the Corsicana Government Center (200 North 12th Street). All visitors should enter through the north doors at the Utility Billing Department. Citizens will be able to pay utility bills and apply for building permits. All other City business should be handled by telephone at 903-654-4800. The Corsicana Library will be closed to the public. All checked materials will be automatically renewed. The Senior Activity Center will be closed to the general public as well as Pioneer Village. All Municipal Court business should be conducted by telephone at 903-654-4856.

Please understand that the measures taken are strictly precautionary. There is no confirmed case in Navarro County at this time. Please call 903-654-4800 with any questions.

Sincerely,

Don Denbow
Mayor